

New Loan Officer in Okmulgee

Ashley Summers has been elected as Loan Officer at First National Bank & Trust's Okmulgee main location. Ashley has spent the past six years working for a Fortune 200 company where she was a Facility Administrator. She has managed a successful team of 15+ people and has achieved excellence in compliance, customer service, and budget management. She has a Bachelor of Science degree from University of Phoenix in Business Management. Ashley is married to Chris Summers and they have two children, Adden and Hudson. Ashley serves on the board of The Rowan Fund, a non-profit organization that supports the needs of Okmulgee County adoptive and foster families through grant assistance and service. Jared Cable, Senior Vice President and Senior Lending Officer adds, "Ashley's education and management experience, positive attitude, and drive to learn and grow in her career will make her an integral asset in banking. We are excited to have her as part of the FNB Family."
